

Fall Colors in Friday Harbor

October 4- 8, 2011

<http://www.art-adventures.com/> Lee Baughman and Susan Cowan

Susan and Lee have arranged another instruction - free painting get away for self directed artists. We have reserved the Legion Hall at Friday Harbor on San Juan Island with its full kitchen for four and a half days of creativity. You will be free to come and go at the Legion Hall or create plein air paintings if you wish. This artist friendly space with its large windows looks down on the harbor. It has "elbow room" to go beyond traditional painting to explore creative expressions such as batik, fish prints, monotype's, pours or ???!

Tuesday morning will begin at 9:30 with plein air painting at the Harbor. At one o'clock we will get into the Legion Hall to set up tables and begin painting. Each of the following days begins at 9:30 with a friendly critique by Susan and Lee. Participants will then pursue their own projects. Interaction with other artist will highlight the experience. Come early, stay late, just get away and paint, paint, paint! Join a "Food Pod" and enjoy communal meals or visit nearby restaurants.

Additionally, we have reserved cabins and rooms at the Lakedale Resort for those who wish to share accommodations. Their web site is <http://www.lakedale.com>. Their phone number is 1-800-617-2267 or 360-378-2350. Say you are with art-adventures when you call to get our special price. Lakedale provides a nice continental breakfast and cabins have cooking facilities. Cabins are $229 a night. Rooms are $129. There are a limited number of rooms with two beds. Susan and Lee are happy to help you find roommates and coordinate carpool arrangements. Participants are free to choose other accommodations.

DATES: Tuesday thru Saturday, October 4 - 8, 2011. (You will probably wish to arrive on Monday, October 3rd and settle in the night before.) This Art-Adventure ends with a Saturday clean up and departure at noon. Participants agree to help clean up the Grange hall in order to keep cost of this Getaway low.

Cost: $250 Sorry, but we are on too tight a budget on this one to refund your money if you cancel. You may sell your spot to another artist if cancellation is necessary.

Questions? Call Lee at 360-573-5447 or Susan at 253-677-1920 or e-mail us at artadventures@aol.com.

Please be aware that there is strong interest in this adventure! We are limited to 20 participants because of our commitment to giving everyone his/her own full table to work on. Reservations will be on a first come basis.
